WIFE FAINTS AS HUSBAND IS ARRESTED

Man Indicted By Grand Jury Asks Sheriff to "Pinch" Him
IS CHARGED WITH LIQUOR VIOLATION
Franklin-Tp. Man Pleads "Not Guilty" to Three Indictments

When Sheriff McDonald late Wednesday afternoon, placed Jacob Staats under arrest in the office of Atty. C. R. Bell, Mrs. Staats, the man's wife, who was in the office at the time collapsed and the services of two physicians were required for half an hour before she revived.

Staats was indicted on three counts by the April grand jury for violation of the township local option liquor law, the county option liquor law, and furnishing intoxicating liquors to minors. The offense occurred last summer. Staats lives in Franklin-Tp. which has been dry for several years under the Beal law.

Staats suspected that he was among the twelve men who were indicted by the grand jury and came to Coshocton Wednesday afternoon to consult an attorney. He and his wife went to Atty. Bell's office where Staats decided to give himself up. The sheriff was telephoned and Staats was placed under arrest.

Mrs. Staats who is of a nervous temperament was overcome and while the sheriff was serving the papers she fell to the floor unconscious.

Drs. Stephan and Portz, Baltic physicians who are defendants in a law suit being tried in common pleas court, were in the office of one of their attorneys, F. E. Pomeroy and they were called. They worked with Mrs. Staats for over half an hour before she was revived.

Thursday morning Staats appeared before Judge Nicholas, entered pleas of not guilty to the three indictments. His bond was fixed at $500 in one of the indictments, that sum to stand for his appearance in answer to all three charges.

UNION MUST BE RECOGNIZED IS MINERS' DEMAND

Hard Coal Men to Meet In Philadelphia To Decide

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 4.—Peace or war in the anthracite fields hinges upon whether action by the operators take in Philadelphia next Wednesday when the representatives of the miners make formal demand for recognition of their union. Wage demands have been subordinated to recognition of the union.

Positive assurances to this effect were given by district leaders today who declared that the national leaders will inform the operators when they meet in conference in Philadelphia, that, unless recognition of the union is guaranteed they will recommend to the miners to turn down any other proposition and tie up the entire anthracite field in a general strike.

Some of the coal company officials are said to be in favor of recognition of the union in a modified form. Conservatives among the miners' leaders are counselling in favor of a modified form of recognition if that is the best that can be secured this year.

DURAND TO GIVE TALK IN CONGRESS

C. Homer Durand went through Coshocton Thursday on his way to Washington where he will address congress tomorrow against legislation that is now pending before that body. The fact that two hours has been assigned for Mr. Durand's address, is in itself a compliment to the former well known Coshocton attorney. The bill has to do with compelling shipper of liquors, etc., to know exactly for whom and for what purpose their goods are to be used for after they reach their destination, and is the last stand of radicals to do something to make the southern state prohibition laws at least semi-effective—which they are not representative of the shipper, and will show congress the incongruity of such attempted legislation. Durand's ability and force as a speaker are widely acknowledged and he is depended on to turn the tide.

Count Boni, His Former Wife and Her Husband

Rome, April 4.—If there is any truth in the rumors that Count Boni de Castellanne, the divorced husband of the American heiress, Anna Gould, but at present Princess de Sagan is seeking access to another American fortune by becoming a suitor for the hand of Miss Anne Morgan, his matrimonial ambitions must have suffered a severe setback, at the recent denial by the Vatican of his appeal to nullify his marriage to Anna Gould. The story that Boni has hopes of marrying Miss Morgan was started when the Count made several attempts to interview J. Pierpont Morgan, who is at present in Rome. The American financier was always out when the nobleman called.

END OF BRITAIN COAL STRIKE IS AGAIN IN SIGHT

Forty Thousand Striking Miners Returned to Work Today

London, April 4.—Forty thousand striking coal miners had returned to work today throughout the United Kingdom and official announcement of the end of the strike was expected from the leaders of the Federated Miners' union.

Thomas Ashton, secretary of the federation after a meeting of the executive committee made the following announcement: "A scrutiny of the ballots in the referendum vote on the minimum wage bill shows a majority of between 30,000 and 40,000 in favor of a continuation of the strike and against the bill. But as a two thirds majority is necessary to continue the strike, the returns show a victory for those in favor of peace."

London, April 4.—The total vote of the miners of the United Kingdom on the question of acceptance of the minimum wage bill was officially announced this afternoon to be 201,113 for the bill and 215,111 against it. The miners' federation announced from headquarters that it would urge all miners to resume work.

PHYSICIANS' CASE AGAIN BEING TRIED

Baltic Physicians Defendants in $10,000 Damage Case In Court

HARD TIME IN GETTING JURY

Mrs. Lower Claims Her Injuries Are Probably Permanent

After spending all morning and part of the afternoon in securing a jury, the trial of Mrs. Lucy Lower against Drs. Stephan and Portz, Baltic physicians, a suit for $10,000 alleged malpractice damages, was started in common pleas court Thursday afternoon.

The original venire of the petit jury was exhausted all but eight men because of high water and sickness preventing many of them from attending. A special venire of six names was called but before they had all reported another venire of six names was issued. The extra four men were secured from the first special venire.

The malpractice case is one of the most important that will come up at the present term of court. This is the second time it has come to trial. At the winter term of court a slight flaw was found in the plaintiff's petition and the proceedings had to be started over again from the very first.

Mrs. Lower who lives in the northern part of the county fell from a tree while picking cherries on July 1910. She was injured D. D. Stephan of Baltic was called. He called Dr. Portz for a consultation. The plaintiff claims that the physicians declared the left femur was fractured and treated the injury as such when, they claim, the injury was not in the femur but was a dislocation of the hip joint. The plaintiffs allege unskillful treatment, improper examination and wrong diagnosis, all of which the defendants deny.

As a result of the improper treatment, as the plaintiffs allege, Mrs. Lower is now a cripple and in all probability will be one all her life. She wants $10,000 damages from the two physicians.

The jury that is hearing the case is composed of W. J. Gordin, Sam'l Crawford, Edward Dawson, Joseph Markler, John Strone, James Gillen, Edward Clark, John Ruse, Adam Alteshouse, George T. Ayres, Frank Albus and Thomas Adams.

RIVERS DROPPING BACK THURSDAY

Once more the high waters of the Walhonding and Tuscarawas rivers are beginning to go down and it will probably be but a matter of time before the Canal Lewisville road is entirely free from water. There is no water at all over the Roscoe road today, but the Canal Lewisville road bed is buried under three feet of water and people with buggies and wagons are unable to drive it today.

The waters of both rivers fell slowly Wednesday afternoon, but Wednesday evening were practically on a standstill. All morning the streams lowered only about two inches, but all afternoon they have been continuing to go down, and it is believed that they will recede much faster this evening. By tomorrow morning the Canal Lewisville road will be safely cleared free from water to allow the traffic to pass over it.

BIG LOG MASHES MAN'S FOOT TODAY

Charles Wright, employed at the Henry Thomas saw mill on the Fred Smalles farm near New Moscow, had one of his feet mashed Wednesday morning when a large piece of lumber fell on his right foot while he was working on a log. Wright was helped by his neighbors and a large piece, six inches square by twelve inches long fell on the member. The man was taken to his home where the foot was given medical attention.

Copley is a thriving town of Summit county. Prof. Renner will graduate eleven students April 20, the Hon. F. W. Miller, state school commissioner, to enter the commencement address. His high school has been advanced to the first grade under his able leadership.

Republican Judicial Committee to Meet In Mansfield, Ohio.

ROSS W. FINEK, chairman of the Republican circuit court judicial committee for the Fifth circuit court has notified the members to meet at Mansfield on Tuesday, April 9, 1912, at 1 p. m. The meeting is to be held in the office of W. M. Weldon 27 N. Main street. The meeting is for the purpose of selecting the place, fixing the time for holding the convention and providing for the manner in which delegates shall be selected.

Suggests Judges All Be Appointed

Columbus, O., April 4.—The constitutional convention Thursday morning fixed upon 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, April 9, as the time for voting upon Judge Peck's judicial reform proposal.

Delegate Evans, of Scioto, opened the discussion Thursday on the judicial reform proposal by advocating that the governor be vested with the power to appoint the judges.

Delegate Evans contended that the voters at large were not qualified to select the judges because they had neither time nor opportunity to acquaint themselves with the efficiency or non-efficiency of the candidates.

Under present conditions, according to Delegate Evans, the "chief politicians" nominate the judges. If there was any justification for the short ballot, it should be applied with reference to the selection of judges, was the claim of Delegate Evans.

In resuming his discussion of his proposed amendment to the judicial reform proposal, Judge Worthington, of Hamilton, Thursday morning, advocated that "accidental vacancies" in the circuit courts be filled by appointments made by the governor; also, that similar vacancies in the appellate court be filled by means of a general election.

In the opinion of Judge Worthington there should not be more than three judges in any district. In the event that the work in any particular district becomes too burdensome, he advised the subdivision of the district and the creation of additional judges. It, on the other hand, the legislature should do away with any district, it should be the duty of the chief justice of the supreme court to reassign the judges of the district thus eliminated to other territory.

FLOOD DAMAGE WILL REACH AN ENORMOUS SUM

Levees Along Mississippi Crumble and Farms Are Inundated

Carlo, Ill., April 4.—Two breaks in the levees occurred here shortly before dawn today and the flood waters of the Mississippi and Ohio have swept through the drainage district and left the city practically isolated and in imminent danger of partial destruction. The flood water is 14 feet higher than the streets of the city. Four hundred men working to save the Big Four railroad levee were narrowly when the break occurred. They were left standing on the top of the embankment, part of which had already been torn away by the flood. A steamer was sent from here to rescue them and began a battle with the current which is swift and treacherous, to reach the embankment without creating counter currents and eddies that will cause the levee to crumble into the water, before the helpless laborers can be taken off.

Railroad communication has already been cut off and the situation is serious. The loss from the flood today was estimated at $5,000,000. Nearly every able bodied man in Carlo and 1,500 imported laborers struggled along the seven miles of levee that protect the city in a last desperate effort to check the flood today. The water is still rising rapidly.

2000 Homeless. Memphis, Tenn., April 4.—Ten thousand persons homeless today watched the advancing waters creep in nearer and nearer the heart of the business district of Memphis, while the city authorities held a hasty conference to devise ways of feeding and sheltering the refugees and care for the city's sanitary problems. The situation here today was desperate. The Bayou Gayoso has spread out over the northern section of the city. About forty entire blocks are submerged to a depth of from ten to seven feet. Factories have been shut down and fully 14,000 persons are without work. Many of the homeless are without shelter. Sewers are stopped up. The gas plant has been compelled to shut down and a great part of the city is without fuel. The water supply is seriously threatened and the problem of feeding the homeless has become urgent.

Reports from Hickman, Ky., say the food supplies are running low and the entire business section of the city is under water.

Fully three hundred thousand acres of land in Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee, and Mississippi, under water and farming on 300,000 acres has been suspended for fear the floods will invade them. The condition is the most serious known in years and more country is now under water than has ever been known to be inundated.

Thousands Starving. New Orleans, La., April 4.—Starvation threatens flood refugees throughout the inundated Mississippi valley today and reports from up the river said that over 10,000 were homeless while the steady encroachment of the flood and the threatened destruction of levees was causing the army of sufferers to be swelled hourly. Washington, April 4.—The "Texas," which will be the first battleship to carry an armament of the new 14-inch guns, will be launched May 18, the navy department announced today. The news of the launching has brought forth many protests from W. C. T. U. and other prohibition and temperance organizations against the use of wine when the big ship slips off the ways at the Norfolk navy yard. These protests will be referred to the ship builders and to the officials of the state of Texas, as the navy department officials point out that the vessel does not belong to the government until she is accepted and that the launching is under the state authorities. Miss Claudia Lyon, daughter of Colonel Cecil Lyon, Republican national committeeman has been chosen by Governor Colquhoun to christen the Texas.

DROVE ACROSS ROAD COVERED BY THREE FT. WATER

George Mohler of Canal Lewisville, is the only person that has braved the high waters since they began to come up over the Canal Lewisville road. Thursday noon Mr. Mohler came down from his home in Canal Lewisville to Coshocton, driving a team of horses hitched to a big farm wagon, while the murky waters of the rampaging Tuscarawas river were flowing three feet deep over the brick roadway between here and the village of Canal Lewisville.

Mr. Mohler was compelled to come to town today to attend to some business, and as there was no way to get here except by wagon, he set out to make his way to town through the high waters. The two sturdy horses hitched to the wagon were equal to the task of bringing their owner and the wagon through waters three feet deep for a distance of about two miles, and they landed them both safely at Canal's mill a short while after the noon hour.

Driving in three feet of moving water is not the safest way to get any place, but Mr. Mohler and his horses were able to perform the stunt without any injury or accidents.

TWO KILLED MANY HURT AS TROLLEY CAR HITS FREIGHT

Chicago, April 4.—Two women were killed and 18 persons were severely hurt today when a crowded Keddle avenue car was struck by a freight train as it crossed the Chicago and Alton tracks. Most of the passengers on the car were women and children. The car was square across the tracks when the trolley came to the wreck and the car was stalled. The passengers scrambled for the doors but before they could reach them a freight train crashed into the car, cutting it almost in two.

West immediately turned around and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Shaw charging him with attempting to provoke him to commit a breach of the peace. The squire's charge was filed in Squire Abbott's court. Shaw's bond was fixed at $200.

NICHOLS STILL SAYS HE'S GUILTY

Portsmouth, N. H., April 4.—Seth T. Nichols, the sailor who insists that he killed Dr. Helen Knabe of Indianapolis on Oct. 24 by cutting her throat, declared today that he would give the police still further details of the tragedy after he had "a good sleep."

"I will go to your office and tell you something that nobody has heard," he told the sheriff. "I have not given you half of it. I will tell you who was there and just who took part in the murder."

LOOK AFTER THE CHILDREN

South Bethlehem, Pa., April 4. — In the addresses, before today's session of the Conference on Conservation of School Children under the auspices of the American Academy of Medicine in the auditorium of Lehigh University, Dr. William C. White professor of medicine in the university of Pittsburgh, attributed the reasons for slow progress in improving the general inefficient health officers; the political appointment of boards; and the lack of cooperation of the efforts of the administrators of health laws, physicians and educators.

"If I were allowed," he said to make one change that would I think accomplish the greatest good, it would be the appointing of the highest type of medical men as health officers; under no political trammellings and trust him to work out local autonomy with tact and education which would accomplish the conservation we desire in every territory."

Dr. Ira S. Wile of New York city, editor of the Medical Review of Reviews, advocated the providing of lunches to the pupils by the public schools. Many children he said do without lunch at midday while at schools and others buy candy with their lunch money, which is worse than nothing at all. The only way the school authorities could compel the children to eat substantial lunches in the midday would be to provide them in the school.

REFORMS TO SAVE MILLIONS

Washington, D. C., April 4.—Reforms which will save the United States government approximately $5,361,900 annually and greatly lighten the efficiency of various departments are demanded by President Taft in a message sent to congress today and designed to supplement the message on "economy and efficiency in government service," transmitted to both houses on February 5 last.

President Taft has embodied in his message the conclusions of the commission appointed by him under authority of the acts of June 25, 1910, and March 2, 1911, to inquire into needed reforms in government service. Some of the reforms urged by the president and the amounts, he claims will be saved are as follows:

Placing of postmasters upon the civil service basis, $4,512,900.

Placing of pension agents under the civil service, $62,000.

Extension of civil service to land office and curtailment of unimportant positions, $200,000.

Consolidation of offices of six auditors of treasury department, $200,000.

Placing light house and life saving services from under bureau of light house of department of commerce and labor and separating them from the treasury department $100,000.

Centralization of distribution of government publications $242,000.

Discontinuance of official register and establishment of an organization outline $45,000 on each issue.

The chief feature of the message is the president's reiteration that politics be removed from the postal service, so as to promote efficiency and effect an economy at the same time. It is estimated that $19,000,000 is lost annually by the government under the present system. It is the president's idea to eliminate assistant postmasters and give the regular postmaster a salary 20 per cent higher than his assistant formerly received.

In the matter of pension agencies the message says that the work done by a pension agent and chief clerk, whose combined salaries are approximately $6,000, could be accomplished by a civil service commissioner at a salary of from $2,100 to $3,000.

Congress is asked to establish a merit system so as to secure more efficient work and to extend the classified service to the internal revenue and customs offices. Abolition of the revenue cutter service as a separate institution from the navy is recommended, the president asking why "two navies" should be maintained. Both economy and efficiency, Mr. Taft states, demand that the revenue cutter service be placed under the navy department.

The president points out the advisability of establishing a uniform system of granting expenses among cabinet members for the purposes of traveling and a reorganization of the handling and filing of government correspondence so as to reduce the number of letters handled.

The message finally advises an appropriation of $75,000 to establish an up-to-date printing establishment for the seven government departments and a further appropriation to allow a continuance of the work of the investigating commission.

FINGER PRINTS TELL TALES

Absolute Identification Certain Where the Practiced Sleuth Takes Up the Trail.

Many years ago Mark Twain, in his delightful story of "Pudd'n' Head Wilson," declared that every man's identity, and often, even his destiny, is always on his finger tips. Twice on one day this has been recognized in different parts of the country. It was found that the men who used a launch for the purpose of taking dynamite from the Giant powder works were not the McNamarras. Several finger prints completely exploded the theory. They are, however, the tracks by which others may be overtaken. There could be no doubt that "Edgar R. Jay" arrested in St. Louis for forgery a week after he had married, is Jay Gould Hay, alias Jay Gould, alias Jule Lee. He can not escape the identity of his finger prints at the Indiana and Missouri reformatories.

It was only last year that there were two remarkable warnings to the criminal class to wear gloves. Charles Crisp was arrested and convicted for burglary in New York solely because he left behind on window glass four finger marks. They were only a few hairline etchings, but they singled out of millions of people the only one who could have made them. It was difficult to obtain a jury that would convict on finger print evidence alone but when it was shown that there is only one chance in sixty-four billions that two finger prints will be alike that there was no great likelihood of any two of the 1,600,000,000 people now on the earth being able to make the same finger markings, the prison gave up. Again, in New York, was the remarkable case growing out of the murder of Isaac Vogel, an itinerant jeweler. It was a single fm print of a finger on a silver cigarette case that led to the arrest of Joseph Roberts.

Thus far finger print evidence is associated in the public mind with criminology. But the day may come when people registering to vote will be required to press their thumb down next to their names. Philadelphians reformers, who are battling against the floater and duplicate voting system, advocate it. They insist that it is only a step beyond requiring the voter to write his name at registration and again—by the side of the first signature—when he comes to vote. It is thought the finger print would stop floaters.

DISFIGURED WITH SCALES AND CRUSTS

Eczema from Top of Head to Waist—
Suffered Untold Agony and Pain.
Doctors Said It Could Not Be Cured.
Set of Cuticura Remedies Successful When All Else Had Failed.

"Some time ago I was taken with eczema from the top of my head to my waist. It began with scales on my body. I suffered untold itching and burning, and could not sleep. I was greatly disfigured with scales and crusts. My eyes looked as if they had been most cut off with a razor, and my neck was perfectly raw. I suffered untold agony and pain. I tried two doctors who said I had eczema in its fullest stage, and that it could not be cured. I then tried other remedies to no avail. At last, I tried a set of the genuine Cuticura Remedies, which cured me. Cuticura Remedies cured me of eczema when all else had failed; therefore I cannot praise them too highly.

"I suffered with eczema about ten months, but am now entirely cured, and I believe Cuticura Remedies are the best skin cure there is." (Signed) Miss Mattie J. Shaffer, R. F. D. 1, Box 8, Dancy, Miss., Oct. 27, 1910.

"I had suffered from eczema about four years when boils began to break out on different parts of my body. It started with a fine red rash. My back was affected first, when it also spread over my face. The itching was almost unbearable at times. I tried different soaps and salves, but nothing seemed to help me until I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. One box of them cured me entirely. I recommended them to my sister for her baby who was troubled with tooth eczema, and they completely cured her baby." (Signed) Mrs. F. J. Marberger, Dehlersville, Pa., Sept. 6, 1910.

Although Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a liberal sample of each, with 24-page booklet on the skin and hair, will be sent, post-free, on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 31, Boston.

ALL DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION GOES IN FIVE MINUTES

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—maybe you call it indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of the stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressing and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, eructing, a bowels tenderness in the pit of the stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is feeble and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

WARNER SHERRARD MUST FACE THREE JURY INDICTMENTS

Charged under three indictments with furnishing liquor to a minor, selling intoxicating liquors contrary to law and with sodomy, Warner Sherrard was arrested Wednesday evening by Deputy Sheriff McDonald in Shaffer's saloon on Hickory street and is now held in the county jail. The offenses are alleged to have occurred last August in a camp down the Muskingum river. The indictments were returned by the April grand jury.

It is alleged that Sherrard enticed small boys to the camp one day last August and there attempted a crime the details of which are unprintable. A boy named Miller, it is said, fell victim to the man, and it is claimed by the prosecution that Miller was treated by a physician. It was in this camp that Sherrard sold liquor contrary to law.

Sherrard is the son of John Sherrard, 38 about 25 years old and well known about town. He is being held in the county jail pending his arraignment before Judge Nicholas.

KILLED AS SHE IS GIVEN RING OF BETROTHAL

Further Details of Miss Lightner's Death Are Received Here.

That Miss Bernice Lightner went to Vermillion, O., to receive her betrothal ring and was struck dead a moment after it was placed on her finger, has been learned by friends in this city.

Further details of the tragedy which has stricken the hundreds of friends and acquaintances of the victim and her family complete the story of love and death.

Miss Lightner, it seems, was invited to the house party near Vermillion last week but had decided not to go because she had a cold and feared to risk the draughty farmhouse in which the house party was to be held.

However, on her intended, Dr. Russell Jewitt, of Cleveland, urging her to go up to Vermillion as he wanted to give her at that time their betrothal ring, Miss Lightner could not resist her lover's request and so went to the fatal house party.

On Sunday all expectant she met Dr. Jewitt at the train. The lovers could not wait any longer to give and to receive the ring and so immediately started out on the stroll across the trestle, which had been a favorite walk for the young people of the vicinity on account of the view it afforded.

According to reports from Cleveland Dr. Jewitt is being kept in ignorance of his fiancée's death. He is still dazed and only semi-conscious but his condition is improving. His father, who is also a physician, says that the young man is suffering most from mental shock.

BOYS WHO STOLE SHOES BILLED TO LOCAL MAN CAUGHT

Easter shoes, right up to snuff may lead to trouble unless the balance of your wardrobe is in keeping. This ethical fact led to the arrest yesterday of two Cleveland youths who had broken into a Wheeling & Lake Erie freight car and stolen a couple of cases of foxy Easter footwear belonging to Peacock, the local shoe dealer.

Some days ago Mr. Peacock had made a purchase from Earl Hink, who travels for a big Cleveland house, of some very foxy English tan shoes. When they arrived the other day only half of the order came. Investigation followed.

Tuesday evening an employee of the Cleveland house, who had been told of the missing shoes, happened to be in a place getting a glass of cold water when he noticed a couple of shabbily dressed young men enter, and each was respectful in a pair of latest style tan shoes, that fairly twinkled in contrast to their raiment. He called up railroad detectives and arrests were made at once. The officers also found the other shoes. The lads had broken into a car and helped themselves. While the local firm is taking it as a compliment yet the annoyance rather exceeds the bouquet.

Tells Women How to Have Charming Hair

Rough, coarse hair is unnecessary; so is faded, dull looking hair. Dandruff and scalp itch are both caused by an accumulation of scurfy filth and can easily be gotten rid of. Dandruff germs cause falling hair and diseases of the hair and scalp, and should be destroyed.

If you have any of the hair troubles mentioned above C. E. Anderson will guarantee PARISIAN SAGE to end everyone of them or will refund your money.

PARISIAN SAGE is a delightful hair-dressing that is being used today by many thousands of lovely Americans who detest uncleanness. Large bottles 50 cents.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS IN NEED OF MORE MEMBERS

The regular meeting of the Coshocton Dramatic club will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the basement of the Trinity Episcopal church. It is desired that all of the present members be in attendance and it is also especially desired that many others, not yet members of the club, attend the meeting this evening and signify their willingness to take part in the work that the organization expects to undertake. The membership of the club at present is entirely too small to do the work that is desired, and it is hoped that many others will join.

EASTER

Easter is upon us, and it means, or should mean, more than new rain; more than sunshine; more than flowers. The ancients, long before the Christian era, saw in the feast of Easter, the birth of spring, the real new year. Christianity has taken its literal meaning and amplified it to show the budding of the Christian life as well as the life of nature. It is the budding of the new man within us, the attainment of a greater spiritual perfection. Like spring, it brings the promise of a sunnier life, a better day, the fruition of the harvest. Let Easter mean something more, something better than eggs and posies.

U. M. W. SPREADS

In fairness to all concerned, the miners of West Virginia ought to be organized into the United Mine Workers. It is unfair to the operators and miners of Ohio to have coal dug in West Virginia at wages that sound like Germany or England, instead of the United States. The organizers of the great fraternity are now busy in the mountain state. It is to be hoped that they organize it as tight as Ohio is organized. Union labor means better wages and more prosperity for merchants and farmers, as well as for the men themselves. Bring West Virginia into the fold and there will be more happiness all around.

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice. Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are or known compositions. Isaac Funk Dead.
Monclair, N. J., April 1.—Dr. Isaac K. Funk, prominent author and publisher, died at his home here today of heart failure. Dr. Funk interested himself greatly in psychic research and many times insisted that he had been in communication with the spirit of Henry Ward Beecher, and had been face to face and spoken with the ghost of the famous preacher. Dr. Funk was 75 years old. He had been editor of various publications and was the publisher of the Literary Digest.

Belasco's Flowery Apology.
David Belasco, who bows with such modesty before the curtain calls that greet the presentation of his dramatic successes, occasionally loses his temper, and when he gets angry he does the thing up brown. For the time being, there isn't a peaceful thought in his fertile brain. When he began the rehearsals of "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," Miss Henrietta Crossman, the star of the piece, warned him that he must not scold her.

A few days before the first public production, however, Belasco broke out in one of his fine tempers, and Miss Crossman, with head in the air, left the stage and the theater. She was walking rapidly up the street when she heard the rush of footsteps behind her. Turning around, she saw the manager, with his arms full of flowers. These he held out to her imploringly. This tribute effected a reconciliation. On the way back to the theater the star noticed a flower stand completely denuded of its stock. Belasco in his pursuit of the feeling actress, had bought all the flowers in sight—From Twice-a-month Popular Magazine.

JUDGE TAGGART BEING BOOMED FOR DELEGATE

(Wooster Republican)

Members of the Seventeenth district, congressional committee were in session, Wednesday afternoon, in the parlor of the Archer house. All the counties in the district were represented. The sentiment of the committee seemed to be in favor of Judge Taggart. The chairman, George Hamilton of Newark, said the object of the committee was to talk over the matter of selecting delegates to the national convention.

Owing to several delays the meeting did not get under way until about 3 o'clock. The resolutions which were passed were the same resolutions that were passed by the state committee a few days ago. They were passed although there was some question as to whether there was any use in passing them.

Judge Frank Taggart was considered as a delegate to the Chicago convention and it was stated a petition would soon be circulated for him. It was also thought a Wayne county man might be selected as alternate, but his name will not be known for a day or two. The other delegate and another alternate will be chosen from the southern portion of the district, the delegate being from Tuscarawas county.

"Excuse Me"

Copyright 1911 by A. K. FLY CO.

"Go on, it's beautiful to see," he explained. The gambler set the pack down with the one word "Cut!" but since the old man made no effort to comply, the gambler did not insist. He took up the pack again and ran off five cards to each place with a grace that staggered the doctor.

Mallory was about to intervene for the protection of the gullest physician when the conductor chanced to saunter in.

The gambler, seeing him, snatched Dr. Temple's cards from his hand and slipped the pack into his pocket.

"What's the matter now?" Dr. Temple asked, but the newcomer huskily answered: "Wait a minute. Wait a minute."

The conductor took in the scene at a glance and, stalking up to the table, spoke with the grimness of a sea-captain: "Say, I've got my eye on you. Don't start nothin'."

The stranger started at him wondering and demanded: "Why, what you drivin' at?"

"You know all right," the conductor growled, and then turned on the bearded old clergyman, "and you, too."

"Me, too?" the preacher gasped.

"Yes, you too," the conductor repeated, shaking an accusing forefinger under his nose. "Your actions have been suspicious from the beginning. We've all been watching you."

Dr. Temple was so agitated that he nearly fell off his chair. "Why, do you realize that I'm a—"

"Ah, don't start that," sneered the conductor, "I can spot a gambler as far as I can see one. You and your side partner here want to look out, that's all, or I'll drop you at the next tank." Then he walked out, his very shoulder blades uttering threats.

Dr. Temple stared after him, but the gambler stared at Dr. Temple with a homage. "So you're one of us," he said, and seizing the old man's limp hand, shook it heartily: "I got to slip it to you. Your make-up is great. You nearly had me for a come-on. Great!"

And then he snatched out, leaving the clergyman's head swimming. Dr. Temple turned to Mallory for explanation, but Mallory only waved him away. He was not quite convinced himself. He was convinced only that whatever else anybody might be, no body apparently desired to be a clergyman in these degenerate days.

The conductor returned and threw into Dr. Temple the keys of two bags.

EVERYONE NEEDS IT

Page & Lorenz are Having a Wonderful Sale of Thompson's Barosma, the Mighty Kidney and Liver Specific.

And no wonder, when he offers to refund your money if it doesn't cure any disease of the kidneys, liver or bladder, backache, sideache, nervousness or any weakness of the kidneys.

But Thompson's Barosma has made so many almost miraculous cures that Page & Lorenz are pretty certain not to have any returns.

Here are a few instances: Frank K. Sturges, Sturtevant, Crawford county, Pa., was cured of Bright's disease six years ago and only took six bottles. He has had no bad symptoms since.

"I had kidney trouble and enlargement of the liver and spleen. I took Thompson's Barosma. The first bottle reduced the measurement around my stomach from 45 to 36 inches, and several bottles completely cured me." M. S. Langworthy, Tryonville, Pa.

After suffering the terrible agony of rheumatism for ten years, being compelled to use crutches, J. N. Dunn of Troy Center, Pa., after all hope had left him, and he had no faith in any remedy, took six bottles of Thompson's Barosma, threw away his crutches and went to work for the first time in ten years.

These statements are absolutely true, and the Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa., will prove it. Then why should anyone suffer in the face of such facts? How can they suffer when Page & Lorenz guarantee to refund the money if a cure is not effected? Thompson's Barosma, 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

FITTERS OF FEET

"The old man put out a be-seeing hand and began: "My good man, you do me a grave injustice."

The conductor snapped back: "You say a word to me and I'll do you worse than that. And if I spot you with a pack of cards in your hand again, I'll tie you to the cow-ketcher."

Then he marched off again. The doctor fell back into a chair, trying to figure it out. Then Ashton and Fosdick and little Jimmie Wellington and Wedgewood strolled in and, dropping into chairs, ordered drinks. Before the doctor could ask anybody to explain, Ashton was launched on a story. His mind was a suitcase full of anecdotes, mostly of the smoking room order.

Whenever three or four men are gathered together, they rapidly organize a clearing-house of off-color stories. The doctor listened in spite of him self, and in spite of himself he was amused for stories that would be stupid if they were decent, take on a certain nerve and thrill from their very forbiddenness.

The dear old clergyman felt that it would be priggish to take flight, but he could not make the corners of his mouth behave. Strange twitches of the lips and little steamy escapes of giggles disturbed him. And when Ashton, who was a practiced raconteur, finished a drolard adventure with the episode, "And the next morning they were at Niagara Falls," the old doctor was helpless with laughter. Some superior force, the doctor no doubt, fairly shook him with glee.

"Oh, that's bully," he shrieked, "haven't heard a story like that for ages."

"Why, where have you been, Dr. Temple?" asked Ashton, who could not imagine where a man could have concealed himself from such stories but he laughed loudest of all when the doctor answered: "You see, I live in Ypsilanti. They don't tell me stories like that."

"They—who?" said Fosdick.

"Why, my patients," the doctor explained, and laughed so hard that he forgot to feel gully, laughter so hard that his wife in the next room heard him and giggled to Mrs. Whitcomb.

"Listen to dear Walter. He hasn't laughed like that since he was a medical student." Then she buried her face guiltily in a book.

"Wasn't it good?" Dr. Temple demanded, wiping his streaming eyes and nudging the solemn-faced Englishman, who understood his own nation's humor, but had not yet learned the Yankee quirk.

Wedgewood made a hollow effort at laughter and answered: "Extremely—very droll, but what I don't quite get was—why the porter said—"

The others drew him in a roar of laughter, but Ashton was angry. "Why, you blamed fool, that's where the joke came in. Don't you see, the bride groom said to the bride—" then he lowered his voice and diagramed the story on his fingers.

Mrs. Temple was still shaking with sympathetic laughter, never dreaming what her husband was laughing at. She turned to Mrs. Whitcomb, but Mrs. Whitcomb was still glaring at Mrs. Wellington, who was still writing with flying fingers and undecorating every other word.

"Some people seem to think they own the train," Mrs. Whitcomb raged. "That creature has been at the writing desk an hour. The worst of it is, I'm sure she's writing to my husband."

Mrs. Temple looked shocked, but another peal of laughter came through the partition between the male and female sections of the car, and she beamed again. Then Mrs. Wellington finished her letter, glanced it over, addressed an envelope, sealed and stamped it with a deliberation that maddened Mrs. Whitcomb. When at last she rose, Mrs. Whitcomb was in the seat almost before Mrs. Wellington was out of it.

Mrs. Wellington paused at another wave of laughter from the men's room. She commented petulantly: "What good times men have. They've formed a club in there already. We women can only sit around and hate each other."

"Why, I don't hate anybody, do you?" Mrs. Temple exclaimed, looking up from the novel she had found on the book shelves. Mrs. Wellington dropped into the next chair: "On a long railroad journey I hate everybody. Don't you hate long journeys?"

"It's the first I ever took," Mrs. Temple apologized, radiantly, "and I'm having the—what my oldest boy would call the time of my life. And dear Walter—such goings on for him! A few minutes ago I strolled by the door and I saw him playing cards with a stranger, and smoking and drinking, too, all at once."

CASCARETS INSURE INSIDE CLEANLINESS

The millions of Cascaret users never have Headache, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Stomach.

It is more necessary that you keep your Bowels, Liver and Stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bill from the liver and carry out of the system the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10 cent box from your druggist will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good gentle cleansing, too.

Who Said Corn? I Use "GETS-IT!"

It Works On a Sure, New Plan

"GETS-IT," the new corn cure on a new principle, works like the touch of a fairy's wand. No more knives, razors, files or other instruments of torture for corn-sufferers. No more salves, plasters and bandages that hurt the rest of the toe more than they relieve the corn.

"GETS-IT" never irritates or turns the true flesh raw. It is safe as water. But my, how it does get after corns, bunions, callouses and warts.
It works painlessly, but it shivers 'em right up till they drop off, leaving the firm, healthy flesh underneath.

"GETS-IT" is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is refunded.

All druggists sell "GETS-IT" at 25 cents a bottle, or it will be sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

EXTEND ROCK BAL- LAST R. R. ROAD BED THROUGH THIS CITY

A force of 190 Italians commenced work this morning for the Pennsylvania railroad at a point near Rock Run laying rock ballast on the road bed. The new rock bed had been laid up to this point, but it has not yet been put through Coshocton. It has also been laid east of this city, and the work that was commenced this morning will close up the gap which extends for several miles east of Coshocton. When the work is finished the Pennsylvania will have one of the finest railroad beds in the country. The new rock ballast which has been adopted by many of the railroads throughout the country, is given a most complete success and is much more satisfactory than the old gravel road bed which is fast disappearing on the better railroads of the country.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Till one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, but it is a weak event, true, if no means are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is because Nature is telling you that the hair follicles are becoming old and feeble, and are losing their vitality. It is not a sign of old age, for a young man or woman may have a few gray hairs, but it is a sign of a weak and unbalanced system. When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be thinning or falling out, good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialized hair care is the best preparation to use is the old-fashioned "Orange Peel" hair restorer. It is the best preparation of this kind. It is Wyeth's Sage and Sulfur Hair Restorer, a preparation of domestic sage and sulfur, which in every instance will restore the hair to its natural color and texture, and will keep it from falling out. It is a safe, reliable, and carefully balanced and tested preparation.

NEWARK HAD RABBIT'S FOOT

Coshocton's bowling team captained by Rudy Glaser had a streak of hard luck Wednesday night and went down to defeat before the Newark bowling team at the Corder & Wisenbaugh alleys by just 11 pins. Arnold and Wisenbaugh were the high rollers for the Coshocton aggregation. Wisenbaugh had 518 pins to his credit and Arnold had 537. Tracey of the visitors had the high score of the evening with 406 pins. Both teams showed good form and were pretty well matched. They put up a clever exhibition of bowing.

The score:

	Newark	Total

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system, being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

Home Lighting Recipe

ADAPTED TO SIX ROOM APARTMENT.

You can figure your own light bills if you know the actual current consumption of each lamp. If your lamps have not a posted slip on them showing the current required in watts printed thereon, we say, throw it out in the backyard. Hear it crack. The crack denotes the death knell to the old carbon lamps. New and modern lamps have the wattage consumption stamped on them and you may sit down and figure your light bills just as easy. Suppose you do not happen to have any little folks and need not burn a light all night, but have friends drop in every few evenings, then figure as follows:

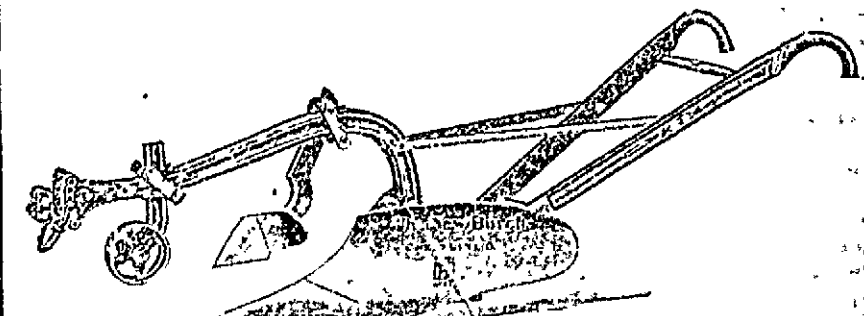

AVERAGE MONTH.
No. Watts	Candle Power	Lamp	Watts
1	18	15 Lamp Porch 30 nights	5 min. each 45
1	18	15 Reception Hall 30 night	1 hr. 540
2	10	32 Lamp Living Room 30 nights	4 hrs. 9600
2	25	20 Lamp Dining Room 30 night	1 hr. 5500
1	25	20 Lamp Kitchen 30 nights	1 hr. 1125
1	18	15 Bath Room 30 nights	1-2 hr. 270
3	25	20 Sleeping Room 30 night	1-2 hr. 1125
Total consumption 30 days			13155
			13.5 K. W. at 10¢..... $1.35
			Less 5 per cent. discount..... .07
			$1.28

Average daily cost about 1 cent. Can you afford to be without it? We will be glad to install a modern equipment in your apartment on 30 days trial.

You can not expect to affect a saving on your light bills by using only a few Manda Lamps in your home. Equally if throughout. Then should you allow a lamp to burn long hours, your bill will not frighten you. Should you continue to use the old carbon lamps your bills will be just three times as much as they should be.
